

ORGANIZATION

The Wildlands Conservancy (TWC) is a private nonprofit public benefit organization whose mission is to preserve the beauty and biodiversity of the earth and to provide programs so that children may know the wonder and joy of nature.

FUNDING SOURCE

An intuitive, self taught and lifelong lover of gardens, nature, and wilderness, the late Ruth Marion Miles Borun (1924-2018) worked with landscape architects and master horticulturalists for over 50 years to create a horticultural treasure at the Borun family home, featured in magazines and books on gardens. This full-time temporary position is a grant-funded fellowship honoring Ruth Borun's dedication to nature and recognizes gardens as places of beauty, sharing and learning.

LOCATION

The primary worksite is the Oak Glen Preserve, a 909-acre nature preserve located in Oak Glen, CA, home to the Conservancy's Southern California Montane Botanic Garden and Children's Outdoor Discovery Center. The position includes working on projects at other preserves in the San Bernardino Mountains Region, such as the wetlands restoration project at the Bluff Lake Reserve near Big Bear Lake.

THE POSITION

The fellow will work alongside passionate botanists and conservationists, engaging in a variety of hands-on activities that contribute to the garden's mission of research, education, habitat restoration, and connecting people with nature. During the six-month temporary position, the fellow will assist in maintaining the garden's extensive collection of plants native to the species-rich San Bernardino Mountains, honing their skills in plant care, propagation, and cultivation techniques. They may also participate in research projects involving restoration ecology, rare and endangered species, or monitoring the impact of climate change on ecosystems. Additionally, they will have the opportunity to engage with visitors, providing information about the garden's flora and fostering an appreciation for the unique plants that thrive in this diverse ecoregion.

This full-time temporary position is available from June through November 2024. Primarily an outdoor position working in all weather conditions; requires regular and punctual attendance.
